

مِنْ حُسْنِ إِسْلَامِ الْمَرْءِ

تَرْكُهُ مَا لَا يَعْنِيهِ

From the completeness of a person's Islaam is that he leaves alone that which does not concern him.⁶

⁶ From the completeness of a person's religion is that he leaves alone that which does not concern him and which does not contain benefit for him and which he has not been given the task of looking into.